(2) No bank, agent or employee of a bank shall on account of such compliance, be liable to any prosecution or to any civil proceedings or claim by any person under or by virtue of any law, contract, agreement, or arrangement, or otherwise.

(3) Any person who fails to comply with an order of the Chairman of the Commission under sub-section (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding two times the amount which was paid out in contravention of the Chairman's order or fifty thousand naira, whichever is the higher, and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two (2) years.

(4) The subject-matter of an offence under this Act or evidence of the commission of such offence shall be liable to seizure and the seizure shall be affected-

(a) by the issuance of a notice of seizure signed by the chairman of the Commission or any other person authorized by him setting out there in the particulars of the immovable property which is to be seized in so far as such particulars are within his knowledge, and prohibiting all dealings in such immovable property; and

(b) By publishing a copy of such notice in two newspapers circulating in Nigeria which shall be in the English Language; and

(c) By serving a copy of such Notice on the officer of the Ministry of Lands of the Area in which the immovable property is situate.

(5) The officer responsible for land matter referred to sub-section (4)(c) shall immediately upon being served with a Notice of Seizure under sub-section (1) endorse the terms of the notice of seizure on the document of title in respect of the immovable property in the Register at his office.

Prohibition of Dealing with property Outside Nigeria.

46. Where the Chairman of the Commission is satisfied that any property is the subject-matter of an offence under this Act, or was used in the commission of the offence, and such property is held or deposited outside Nigeria, he may make an application by way of an affidavit to a judge of the High Court for an order prohibiting the person by whom the property is held or with whom it is deposited from dealing with the property.

Forfeiture of Property upon prosecution for an offence.

47.-(1) in any prosecution for an offence under this Act, the court shall make an order for the Forfeiture of any property which is proved to be the subject matter of the offence or to have been used in the commission of the offence where-

(a) the offence is proved against the accused; or

(b) the offence is not proved against the accused but the court is satisfied:

(i) That the accused is not the true and lawful owner of such property; and

(ii) That no other person is entitled to the property as a purchaser in good faith for valuable consideration.

(2) Where the offence is proved against the accused or the property referred to in sub-section (1) has been disposed of, or cannot be traced, the court shall order the accused to pay as a penalty a sum which is equivalent to the amount of the gratification or is, in the opinion of the court, the value of the gratification received by the accused, and any such penalty shall be recoverable as a fine.

Other grounds for forfeiture of property.

48.-(1) Where in respect of any property seized under this Act, there is no prosecution or conviction for an offence under this Act, the chairman of the commission may, before the expiration of twelve months from the date of the seizure, apply to a judge of the High Court for an order of forfeiture of that property if he is satisfied that such property had been obtained as a result of or in connection with an offence under section 8 to 19.

(2) The judge to whom an application is made under sub-section (1) shall direct to be published a notice in the Gazette and in at least two newspapers circulating in Nigeria, which shall be in English language, calling upon any person who claims to have an interest in the property to attend before that court on a date specified in the notice, to show cause why the property should not be forfeited to the Government.

(3) Where the judge to whom an application is made under sub-section (1) is satisfied-

(a) That the property is the subject-matter of or used in the commission of an offence under this Act: and

(b) There is no purchaser in good faith for valuable consideration of the property, he shall make an order for the forfeiture of the property.

(4) Any property in respect of which no application is made under sub-section (1) shall, after the expiration of twelve months from the date of its seizure, be released to the person from whom it was seized.

Dealing with property after seizure to be null and void.

49. Where any property has been seized under this Act, and so long as such seizure remains in force, any dealing effected by any person or between any persons in respect of such property, except any dealing effected under this Act, or by virtue of this Act by an officer of a public body in his capacity as such officer, or otherwise by or on behalf of the Government of Nigeria, or the Government of a state, or a local Government or other statutory authority, shall be null and void, and shall not be registered or otherwise given effect to by any person or authority.

Surrender of travel documents, Cap. 343 LFN.

50.-(1) notwithstanding any written law to the contrary, the Chairman of the Commission may upon a court order where he has reasonable grounds to believe that any person who is the subject of investigation in respect of any offence under this Act is likely to leave Nigeria, by written notice require such person to surrender his passport or exit permit or any other travel documents in his possession.

(2) A notice under sub-section (1) shall be served personally on the person to whom it addressed.

Chairman's power to amend or revoke any order or notice under this Act.

51.-(1) The Chairman of the Commission may at any time amend or revoke any order or notice which has been made or given by him in exercise of any power conferred on him under this Act.

PROVIDED THAT the revocation of any such notice or order shall not debar the Chairman of the Commission from issuing any fresh orders or notices, against any person or thing affected by the earlier order or notice.

(2)The revocation or amendment of an order or notice under sub-section (1) may contain consequential, ancillary or incidental matters relevant to such revocation or amendment.
Independent counsel to investigate President, etc.

52.-(1) When an allegation of corruption or anything purporting to contravene any provision of this Act is made against the President or the Vice-President of Nigeria or against any State Government or Deputy Governor, the Chief justice of the Federation shall, if satisfied that sufficient cause has been shown upon an application on notice supported by an affidavit setting out the Facts on which the allegation is based, authorize an independent counsel (who shall be a legal practitioner of not less than fifteen years standing) to investigate the allegation and make a report of his findings to the National Assembly in the case of the president or Vice- president and to the relevant state House of Assembly in the case of the state Government or the Deputy Governor.

(2) The Commission shall be enjoined to fully cooperate with such independent counsel and provide all facilities necessary for such independent counsel to carry out his functions.

53.-(1) where in any proceedings against any person for an offence under section 8 to 19 it is proved that any gratification has been accepted or agreed to be accepted, obtained or attempted to be obtained, solicited, given or agreed to be solicited or given, promised or offered, by or to the accused, the gratification shall be presumed to have been corruptly accepted to be obtained solicited, given, promised or offered as an inducement or a reward for or on account of the matters set out in the particulars of the offence, until the contrary is proved.

(2)Where in any proceedings against any person for an offence under this Act, or any other law prohibiting corruption it is proved that such person has accepted or agreed to accept, obtained or attempted to obtain any gratification, such person shall be presumed to have done so as motive or reward for the matters set out in the particulars of the offence, until the contrary is proved.

(3) where in any proceedings against any person for an offence under this Act, or any other law prohibiting corruption it is proved that such person has accepted or attempted to obtain any valuable thing without considering or for a consideration which he knows to be inadequate, such person shall be presumed to have done so with such knowledge as to the circumstances set out in the particulars of the offence, until the contrary is proved.

Cap. 84 LFN

(4) Where in any proceedings against any person for an offence under the custom and excise Act, it is proved that any officer of customs or other person duly employed for the prevention of smuggling has accepted, agreed to accept or attempted to obtain any bribe, gratuity, recompense, or reward, such officer or person shall be presumed to have done so for such neglect or non-performance of his duty as set out in the particulars of the offence, until the contrary is proved.

Public evidence of corroboration.

54. In any proceedings against any person for an offence under sections 8 to 19 of this Act, it may be proved that at or about the time of the alleged offence, or at any time thereafter the accused, or any relative or associate of his-

(a) held any property for which he, or his relative or associate, as the case may be, is unable to give a satisfactory account as to how he came into its ownership, possession, custody or control; or

(b) had entered into any dealing for the acquisition of any property and he is unable to satisfactorily account for the consideration for which it was or is agreed to be acquired, and the evidence in relation thereto shall be presumed to corroborate any evidence relating to the commission of the offence

Evidence of accomplice and agent provocateur.

55. notwithstanding any written law or rule of law to the contrary, in any proceedings against any person for an offence under this Act-

(a) No witness shall be regarded as an accomplice by reason only of such witness having:

(i) accepted, received, obtained, solicited, agreed to accept or receive, or attempted to obtain any gratification from any person;

(ii) Given, promised, offered or agreed to give any gratification; or

(iii) been in any manner concerned in the commission of such offence, or having knowledge of the commission of the offence, if before the completion of the act or acts constituting the offence, knowledge of the witness participation has been reported to the commission by the witness;

(b) no agent provocateur, whether he is an officer of the commission or not, shall be presumed to be unworthy of credit by reason only of his having attempted to commit, or abet or having abetted or engaged in a criminal conspiracy to commit such offence, if the main purpose of such attempt, abetment or engagement was to secure evidence against such person; and

(c) Any statement, whether oral or written, made to an agent provocateur by such person shall be admissible as evidence at his trial.

Admissibility of statements by accused persons.

56.-(1) In any trial or inquiry by a court into any offence under this Act, any statement, whether the statement amounts to a confession or not whether oral or written, made at any time, whether before or after the person is charged and whether before or after the person is charged and whether or not in the course of an investigation, and whether wholly or partly in answer to question, by the accused person to or in the hearing of any officer of the commission, whether or not interpreted to him by any officers of the commission or any other person concerned or not in the arrest of that person, shall, notwithstanding any written law or rule of law to the contrary, be admissible in evidence at the trial; PROVIDED THAT the officer who procured such statement shall make himself available at the trial for the purpose of cross-examination.

(2) No statement made under sub-section (1) shall be admissible or used as provided for in that sub-section if the making of the statement appears to the court to have been caused by any inducement, threat or promise having reference to the charge against the person, proceeding from a person in authority and sufficient in the opinion of the court to give that person grounds which would appear to him reasonable for supposing that by making it he would gain any advantage or avoid any evil of a temporal nature in reference to the proceedings against him.

(3) Where any person is arrested or is informed that he may be prosecuted for any offence under this Act, he shall be served with a notice in writing, which shall be explained to him, to the following effect-

“You have been arrested on the allegation concerning..... and whatever you say or write may be used in any court of law hereafter.”
